AND MORE!

A Resource Speed Round will connect you to local area partners who can assist employers with talent needs.

Network across industries, share your experience and learn from your peers!

At this Roundtable:

- » A panel of business representatives and other experts will share best practices and innovative solutions for attracting, developing and retaining talent.
- » Participants will discuss 2019 workforce trends.
- » You'll walk away with ideas, resources and connections that can help your company succeed.

Who should attend?

Employers and representatives from industry associations who are concerned about workforce challenges in the region are invited to attend. You will hear about successful talent attraction and retention strategies and about resources available to help address employee shortages.
