

CAREER PATHS IN TRANSPORTATION

4-YEAR OR MORE COLLEGE DEGREE AND/OR EQUIVALENT EXPERIENCE

Transportation, Storage & Distribution Manager
$42.41

Airline Pilot
$32.20
Logistician
$34.62

1-2 YEAR COLLEGE DEGREE

Bus & Truck Mechanic & Diesel Engine Specialist
$19.85

Auto Service Tech/ Mechanic
$18.00

Auto Body Repairer
$15.52

LESS THAN 2 MONTHS CREDENTIAL/ LICENSURE

Heavy & Tractor Trailer Truck Driver
$19.84

Bus Driver Transit & Intercity
$15.50

HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA OR GED AND/OR EXPERIENCE/ ON-THE-JOB TRAINING

First-Line Transportation Supervisor
$27.69

Industrial Truck or Tractor Operator
$18.01

Cargo & Freight Agent
$13.15

Light Truck or Delivery Driver
$15.95

Dispatcher
$18.41

Laborer & Freight, Stock & Material Mover
$14.31

WHY CHOOSE A CAREER IN TRANSPORTATION?

Transportation is an essential industry. The transport and logistics industry is one that cannot be replaced by technology, and in fact may even be enriched by it — all forms of technology must be produced and transported, and you could be the person behind that. There are abundant opportunities. Earn a great income!

Northwest PIC<sup>inc</sup>

Rural Minnesota CEP
concentrated employment program, inc.

These jobs are in demand in Northwest Minnesota and these are Northwest Minnesota Median wages. Data collected from Department of Employment and Economic Development.